

Selected China Stories of Elder-Respecting

The China Center of Adoption Affairs (CCAA) has created a very unique book specifically for parents who have adopted from China. Beautiful illustrations can be found throughout this treasured book which contains over 40 stories told in the Chinese tradition. This book is a wonderful way to share China's traditions and history with your entire family and it is sure to become a valued keepsake for generations of adoptive families. Great Wall is honored to be one of only four agencies entrusted by the CCAA to distribute this book to U.S. adoptive parents. We are receiving a limited number of books, so reserve a copy for your family today. All proceeds from this book go directly to the CCAA. This book is in both Chinese and English
